

Child Protection Policy

Bannockburn RFC acknowledges its responsibility to protect and safeguard the welfare of all children in Bannockburn RFC from harm.

Bannockburn RFC recognises that all children have the right to participate in rugby union in a safe, enjoyable and positive environment whilst at the same time being protected from abuse, neglect or poor practice.

Bannockburn RFC confirms that it adheres to the Scottish Rugby Child Protection Policy and the procedures, guidelines, and practices contained in that document and any successive policy.

Bannockburn RFC confirms that it will appoint a Child Protection Officer (CPO) at the club. Their details will be available within the clubhouse and on the club website.

The CPO will undergo Child Protection training as directed by Scottish Rugby.

The Bannockburn RFC CPOs are Colin Alexander, Rachel Keenan and Fiona MacCuish and they agree to be contacted with any concerns regarding child protection and will take appropriate action.

Bannockburn RFC agrees that all allegations or suspicions of abuse, neglect, harm or poor practice will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly, fairly and appropriately.

Bannockburn RFC recognises that all children have the right to expect that their participation in rugby union will be supported and delivered by suitably recruited, vetted and managed staff, whether they are volunteering or officiating.

All members of Bannockburn RFC who undertake regulated work must be a member of the PVG Scheme with a Scheme Record Update if necessary.
