

Bannockburn Rugby Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

Introduction

This code of conduct is the "World Rugby Code of Conduct" which has been adopted by the Scottish Rugby Union and has been amended by them only in so far as is necessary to apply to the game in Scotland. Scottish Rugby is obliged to adopt the World Rugby Code and to ensure it is observed by all those who participate in the game within its jurisdiction. Bannockburn Rugby fully complies and embraces the code as set down and endorsed by the Scottish Rugby Union.

The Code

Scottish Rugby's Code of Conduct shall apply in respect of all clubs, schools, teams, players, coaches, match officials and other persons connected in any way with the game in Scotland.

All such persons:-

- (1) must ensure that the game is played and conducted in accordance with disciplined and sporting behaviour and acknowledge that it is not sufficient to rely solely upon the match officials to maintain those principles
- (2) shall not repeatedly breach the Laws of the Game
- (3) shall co-operate in ensuring that the spirit of the laws of the game are upheld and refrain from selecting players guilty of foul play
- (4) shall accept and observe the authority and decisions of the match officials and all rugby disciplinary bodies
- (5) shall not abuse, threaten or intimidate any match official, whether on or off the field of play
- (6) shall not use crude, foul or abusive language or gestures towards other players, coaches, club officials, match officials, spectators or any other persons
- (7) shall not do anything which is likely to intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against any person on the grounds of their religion, race, gender, sexual orientation, colour, national or ethnic origin
- (8) shall not commit a breach of Scottish Domestic Regulation 6 (Betting and Anti-Corruption)
- (9) shall not engage in any conduct or activity on or off the field that may impair public confidence in the honest and orderly conduct of a match, tour, tournament or series of matches (including, but not limited to, the supply of information in relation to the game, directly or indirectly, to bookmakers or to persons who may use such information to their advantage) or in the integrity and good character of any person
- (10) shall not commit a doping or other offence as defined in Scottish Domestic Regulations 21.1 (Anti-Doping) or 21.2 (illicit drugs)
- (11) shall abide by all rules, regulations, codes of conduct and policies issued by the Scottish Rugby Union including inter alia Scottish Rugby's Child Protection Policy and Concussion Policy
- (12) shall not publish or cause to be published criticism of the manner in which a match official handled a match
- (13) shall not publish or cause to be published criticism of the manner in which World Rugby, Scottish Rugby, Bannockburn Rugby or any disciplinary body handled or resolved any dispute or disciplinary matter resulting from a breach of the World Rugby Bye -Laws, the Laws of the Game, World Rugby's Regulations Relating to the Game, Scottish Rugby's competition rules or any other Scottish Rugby Bye-Law, rule, regulation, policy or process

- (14) shall not do anything which adversely affects the game of Rugby, Scottish Rugby, Bannockburn Rugby, any member club or other Union of World Rugby or any commercial partner of the game in both Scotland and for Bannockburn Rugby
- (15) shall promote the reputation of the game and take all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute

Each club, player, coach, match official and any other person connected in any way with the game in Scotland shall be under an obligation to comply with this Code of Conduct. Breaches of the Code of Conduct shall constitute acts of misconduct under Scottish Rugby's Disciplinary Rules and endorsed by Bannockburn Rugby Club
